Bogutz & Gordon Attorney Honored by Tucson Business Publication Inside Tucson Business Salutes Benjamin Burnside for Professional Work

TUCSON, Ariz. (October 30, 2007) – Benjamin J. Burnside, attorney and shareholder for Bogutz & Gordon, PC, has been named as one of 2007's "Up and Comers" in the October 29, 2007 issue of Inside Tucson Business, a weekly newspaper focusing on Southern Arizona's business and legal communities. He is one of nine young leaders being honored in a special section by the publication.

"Ben's vast experience in elder care and accolades in the legal community make him a wonderful choice for this award," said Allan D. Bogutz, founding partner for Bogutz and Gordon. "To have him and our firm recognized by such a prominent business publication means we are successfully striving for the highest industry standards."

Some of Burnside's achievements include becoming a Certified Specialist in Estate and Trust Law by the State Bar of Arizona, serving as the current editor of the State Bar of Arizona Probate and Trust Law & Mental Health and Elder Law Section Newsletter and being an active member of the Executive Council of the Probate and Trust Law Section.

Inside Tucson Business honors Tucson's "Up and Comers" every year by acknowledging those who are in their 20s, 30s and 40s who have made a positive impact on the region, both in the accomplishments they've made in their careers and the contributions they've made to the community.

At Bogutz & Gordon, Burnside specializes in estate planning, trust administration, probate, planning for incapacity and elder law. He earned his bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Virginia McIntire School of Commerce and his juris doctor (J.D.) degree from University of Arizona College of Law.

Bogutz & Gordon, P.C., is a Tucson law firm concentrating in estate planning and elder law: the legal problems faced by seniors and their families. Our clients are families and individuals who are confronting the issues of aging and disability and are concerned about making the best long term planning decisions for themselves and those who may be dependent upon them.
